STAGE LINES.

COLUMBIA RIVER & PUGET SOUND MAIL LINE.

GEORGE COGGAN, Proprietor.

THE ONLY REGULAR LINE RUNNING BY ARRANGEMENT, and in connection with the PUGET SOUND STEAM NAVIGATION CO., N. P. R. R. CO. and O. S. N. CO., between Sound points, Victoria and Portland.

THIS IS THE ONLY STAGE LINE selling THROUGH tickets over these several lines, and carrying passengers on their tickets.

Passengers by purchasing THROUGH TICKETS save money and trouble, and secure the best conveyances, by the only line by which close connections connections can be relied on. The small reduction made by so called opposition stage lines cannot benefit THROUGH PASSENGERS, as the local fare over the N. P. R. R. and other lines exceed the reduction made by the opposition.

Through tickets can be obtained in Portland at O. S. N. Co's office, Olympia, at COGGANS' STAGE office, and on board the P. S. S. N. Co's steamers.

OUR AGENTS on trains will take charge of baggage and freight for Stages, in waiting at Tenino.

Buggies, Carriages and other private conveyances can be secured by telegraphing to the Agent at the Stage office at Olympia

N. PIERCE, Agent.

P. F. BRADFORD, Secretary A. C. Co.

Portland, May 2, 1873. m5d10

OREGON.

The Commercial Mills at McMinnville on the Yamhill will resume operations.

Hon. B. Herman has moved from Roseburg to Oakland where he proposes to reside.

Fourteen hundred bushels of oats were sent from Roseburg to Yreka last Saturday.

Two jumpists will contend for the prize of a horse at McMinnville on next Saturday.

The McMinnville Reporter of the 15th was four days reaching this office. Too slow, Brother Snyder.

Elder G. W. Richardson, late of Bethel, Polk county, has been called to the pastorate of the Christian Church of Salem.

The Masonic fraternity of Baker City will celebrate the anniversary of St. John the Baptist, on the 24th of June, at that place.

Work was begun on the State Capitol grounds at Salem yesterday, Monday. Sixty convicts began the excavation for the foundation.

Chas. Handley of Lafayette has returned from the Nehalem valley and exhibits a full head of hair notwithstanding his reported capture by the Indians.

Governor Grover has appointed E. C. Mason Assistant Commissary, with the rank of Major, for the Klamath Lake Basin, Jackson county, Oregon.

The Excelsior Lime Company of Roseburg has perfected its organization by electing A. Marks President, Jesse N. Barker Treasurer, and Pliny Cooper Secretary.

Frank Jaquette, a native of France, about 28 years of age, was killed by a caving bank, while mining on Timbered Gulch, near Jacksonville, on Monday evening, May 12, 1873.

Capt. Rogers, Co. E 1st Reg. Oregon Volunteers, with forty men, left Roseburg on Thursday of last week for the Modoc regions. They were mostly well mounted, and presented a fine appearance as they rode off.

The volunteer company, which was formed at Roseburg held an election on the 10th inst., and elected Mr. Rogers, of Camas valley, Captain; Wm. Allen, of Yoncalla, 1st Lieutenant, and Hutchison 2d Lieutenant.

The Executive Committee of the Jackson county Agricultural Society will meet on the first Tuesday in June for the purpose of fixing the time and arranging other particulars for holding the next annual Fair of the Society.

A business letter of date the 14th instant, from Canyon City, says: No news, except everybody scared out of their wits over the report that the Snake Indians have all left Harney. Signal fires have been seen for several days past on the old Indian lookouts.

Mr. E. N. Thomas, of Jefferson, will erect a large warehouse for storing grain at that place during the coming summer. The prospects now are that a number of warehouses at various points on the river and railroad will be ready to receive grain by the next harvest.

On the farm at the Siletz Agency there have been about 340 acres planted with oats and potatoes and the other farms on the reservation will bring the total acreage of these products up to about 1,500 acres. This is more than has been planted any previous year.

Crops are reported good all over the State. This added to the fact that they will, without doubt, be light in California, makes the future look bright to the oitizens of Oregon. There will be at a safe calculation, 600,000 bushels of grain raised in Umpqua valley alone.

We learn from attorneys who have been attending court at Dallas, that the docket was not half cleared the past week, and that the term will probably not close for a week or ten days yet. There were or are quite a number of whisky cases for trial—selling liquor contrary to law.

The season for campmeetings is near at hand. One is appointed to begin the 29th inst., at the old campground on McKay Creek, near Pendleton, another on the Mercer-Thompson grounds near Shedds' Station, June 6th; and another at Belle Fountain campground, Monroe Circuit June 12th.

A young man giving his name as Wm. Reynolds made his appearance in McMinnville about six weeks ago and remained there about a week when he suddenly disappeared and no one knows where he went. He was a painter by trade and left a suit of clothes and some tools at the house where he boarded in McMinnville.

At a meeting of the Jackson County Agricultural Society, held May 10th, J. S. Herrin was re-elected President; James McDaniels and Conrad Mingus, Vice Presidents; H. K. Hanna, Secretary; Henry Pape, Treasurer; D. S. K. Sulek, Fred. Heber, E. F. Walker and William Bybee, Trustees.

In the Circuit Court at Roseburg, last week, twenty four cases of violation of the Sunday law, indictments found at last term, were disposed of. Six were dismissed for informality, three plead guilty and were fined. In the remainder the District Attorney, in view of the amount of business, asked leave to enter a nolle prosequi, which was granted.

The Circuit Court at Dallas will probably continue in session the remainder of this week. Last week the case of Watson against Robbins, which was for a nuisance for erecting a hog sty over a small water course, was tried and damages awarded to the amount of $109; and the case of S. M. Babcock against A. D. Babcock being for assault and battery was tried and the jury rendered a verdict for the sum of $500.

The Jacksonville Sentinel tells of a sad accident which occurred on Sucker Creek on Tuesday, the 13th, whereby two miners working in a tunnel were completely buried by the ground caving in upon them. The names of the unfortunate men are Johnson and Casey, both well known in this section. At last accounts about a dozen men were endeavoring to dig them out, and the groans of the poor fellows could be distinctly heard, thus indicating that they were still alive.

The Bedrock Democrat publishes the following Indian news: "We are informed that there are about three hundred Indians camped at and near Farewell Bend, on Snake river. They are of the Snake, Piute and Yellowstone tribes, and are disposed to be saucy. They have sent their women and children away, or at least their women and children are not with them. These Indians may be friendly to the whites, but the settlers on Payette, Weiser, Snake and Burnt rivers are suspicious that the large assemblage of these red men of the forest bodes no good, and many of them are anxious to place their families in places of more safety than they at present occupy."

The Roseburg Plaindealer of the 16th says: "A very estimable young lady, residing with her father, on the North Umpqua river, about twenty miles from this place, disappeared rather mysteriously and cannot be found. She left her father's house last Saturday, but nothing unusual was noticed until night, when she had not returned. A search was immediately instituted by the neighbors, and although they were untiring in their efforts no tidings of her have yet been received by her anxious relatives and friends. No cause can be given for her deserting her father, as he is a fond, loving and kind parent, and it is feared that she has wandered into the forest and was lost, or has been devoured by some ravenous beast. She was about 18 years of age and has resided in that neighborhood for the past ten years.

EASTERN DATES TO MAY 19.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Concerning Various Offices.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—The President has not concluded to appoint the successor to Minister DeLong, and therefore he may continue to hold the mission to Japan.

The following postal changes have been ordered for Oregon and Washington Territory during the past week:

Offices established—Palfit, Walla Walla county, W. T., J. E. Hopkins, P. M.

Postmasters appointed—Tumsville, Marion county, Oregon, W. H. Powell; Rye Valley, Baker county, Oregon, M. K. Ness; La Conner, Whatcom county, W. T., L. L. Andrews.

As to a Mail Contract.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—Owing to the loss of the Atlantic and the temporary disability of two other steamers, the White Star line has failed to separate the lines recently so as to comply with the terms of its contract for carrying the Saturday European mails from New York. The Inman Steamship Company having applied to the Postmaster General for the privilege of performing this mail service as formerly, the Postmaster General has notified the agents of the White Star line to appear in Washington and show cause why their contract should not be revoked on account of the inadequacy of their present service.

Suggestive.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—From a person who recently talked with Hon. Wm. M. Evarts upon the subject, it is inferred that Evarts would not seek the office of Chief Justice of the United States, but would gladly accept it if the President should tender him the nomination.

Centralization.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—The Central American Missions are to be vacated on the 30th of June next. One Minister is to be accredited to all of them, and for this position the President to-day appointed Judge George Williamson of Louisiana.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—Judge Pierrepont is engaged to-day in closing up the Russian mission, owing to press of legal business.

EASTERN STATES.

Nomination to West Point.

CHARLESTON, S. C., May 18.—Mr. Cain and Mower (colored) Congressmen from this State, have nominated white youths, who excelled in competitive examinations, to West Point Cadetships. Cain also nominated a colored youth to the Naval Cadetship.

Anxious to be Sued.

CHICAGO, May 18.—A Washington spirit says Gen. Ben. Green, brother of Duff Green, who claims to have originally obtained the charter of the Credit Mobilier Company, and who still claims to be the owner of a majority of its stock, proposes, as soon as the Government files its bill in equity, in the suit against the Union Pacific Railroad, to file a bill asking that he may be made a party to the suit in order that his rights and interests may be protected.

NEW YORK, May 18.—A Herald's special from Khartoum, of May 12th, via London, 17th, says letters had been received from Sir Samuel Baker, on the White Nile. He reports all well, and that the passage through to the end was effected with great difficulty. He hopes obstructions will be entirely removed during the present summer.

Our Regular Murder.

CHICAGO, May 18.—Last night Larson and wife engaged in a drunken quarrel, when the woman stabbed her husband fatally.

Appointment of a Colored Cadet.

FORTRESS MONROE, May 1.—Presentative J. H. Platt, Jr., of this place, has appointed J. W. Williams as cadet to West Point Academy. He is a mulatto boy, was born a slave, and is seventeen years old.

Capture of Mskive Cowboys.

NEW YORK, May 18. A Herald special from Las Vegas gives details from Tinnie, dated May 17th, of the news that Kinch was taken, and the prisoner was taken prisoner by the Regulators, who have pursued him night and day.

POUGHKEEPSIE, May 18.—It is reported that a gallery at Sing Sing Prison fell to-day, killing from a number of prisoners, of whom one was killed and sixteen injured.

Extensive Defalcation.

NEW YORK, May 19.—A morning journal says of a Mobile cotton factor, president of a leading banking house in this city drawing protested sterling bills, as having proved defaulters to the extent of $1,000,000. Suits have been instituted to such exaggerated amounts have been taken for twenty-two writs, as well as attachments for the same amount against the property of Geo. Dobbin & Co., New Orleans, Goldthwaite & Co., Galveston, and Kelley & Goldthwaite, Galveston, heavy cotton factorage partnership, W. F. Kelley already being out on bail in the sum of $100,000. This firm is said to be the heaviest cotton factors of Brown Bros. & Co., the cotton markets of the South. The trouble which caused the suspension of the sterling bills against cotton shipped to Liverpool had been purchased, and when the money for cotton failed to meet the drafts advanced and redrawn it was protested. The cause of the bills was not known for sure, and that Goldthwaite was jointly interested in the purchases. Goldthwaite is a relative and member of the firm of Brown Bros. & Co., and his fall is a severe blow to the New York principals to the sum of about $1,000,000 they lose, which cannot be more than $100,000.

Strike Among the Negroes in the South.

RICHMOND, VA., May 19.—There was a general strike to-day among colored journeymen tobacconists, who insist upon ten hours as a day's labor.

Something about the Polaris.

CHICAGO, May, 19.—A Washington special says: The arrival here of survivors of the Polaris disaster is looked for with much interest, because it is presumed they can settle the question whether or not there was insubordination and mutiny on board the ship previous to, as well as after the death of Capt. Hall. Stories and explanations already published are far from satisfactory to the Navy Department, and it is the purpose of the Secretary to put the survivors through a sharp examination. Old Naval officers are of opinion that there may have been something like insubordination among the crew, though the Secretary of the Interior by Secretary Richardson, stated that the rules and regulations of the navy would be enforced on the Polaris. The crew, however, are not regularly in the naval service, and of course could not be subject to the punishment visited on a refractory tar in the navy. It is the opinion of the Secretary of the Navy that Polaris is safe and that she will be heard from towards the close of the summer.

Wholesale Postponing.

NEW YORK, May 19.—An investigation is being made by the authorities into the mysterious poisoning of dogs in the house of R. M. Blatchford, No. 7 of Jane Blatchford, on Fourth-street. It is thought all will recover, although one or two of them are dead.

Dead.

William Archdoll O'Doherty, who figured so great conspicuously in the recent fight for the possession of the management of the Erie railway, died Saturday, in this city.

A Noble Benefactor.

Gerrit Smith has given $16,000 for the relief of Cretans who formerly lived in wealth or comfort in circumstances but are now destitute because of the revolution in that Island.

Funeral of Mrs. Pourtales.

The wife of Count Pourtales, and daughter of Ben Holiday, was buried yesterday at White Plains, New York.

Death of Sunset Cox's Father.

STEUBENVILLE, May 19.—Hon. Winckel T. Cox, father of S. S. Cox, died at his residence in Zanesville, Ohio, Saturday, after a protracted illness. Mr. Cox for a number of years, edited the Zanesville Gazette, and several times represented Muskingum county in the State Legislature.

Another Murder.

NASHUA, N. H., May 19.—Jesse Diehl, from York, Pa., shot and mortally wounded Robert Blair yesterday afternoon. Diehl has been arrested.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Condition of Pius IX.

ROME, May 18.—The Pope to-day received the French Legation and a deputation of foreigners. The Pope's condition is still feeble, but indicative of improvement.

LONDON, May 19.—Snow fell in north England yesterday.

CENTRAL AMERICA.

Revolution Against Corrasco.

PANAMA, May 18.—President Corrasco arrived at Panama on the 6th from Costa Rica, and the revolution has broken out afresh. The evening following the arrival of Corrasco, he declared that the National troops acted treasonably, by interfering in the late revolt which deposed Nieva, and he expressed his intention of disarming them, and compelling them to leave the State to-morrow. At 2:30 P. M., fighting with shell and small arms commenced in the plaza at San Jose, by the State troops advancing upon the National forces. After a fight of two hours, the former were repulsed, 93 being captured. Both claim they attacked for safety. The fighting continued with slight intermission until 9, P. M., when Corrasco pushed the Consuls to arrange some plan for peace, but they refused to interfere. The United States steamer Penascola arrived this afternoon, and foreigners are protected at the American Consulate while 150 men from the ships guard the property of the Panama Railroad. This morning firing was reopened and continued with slight intermission until 1 o'clock, when a truce was agreed upon. Carpeting Urraca and Mederas, of the National forces, were killed, and a Colonel and Lieutenant Colonel wounded. President Corvera is wounded. It is impossible to give the number of killed and wounded at this time. Residents who have not availed themselves of the presence of men-of-war have fled the city and are in the bushes. President Nieva, since his banishment, has issued an address to the National troops, calling upon them to maintain the dignity of the State. Trouble is now over. Col. Juan Pervet, former Prefect of Colombia, has been designated Provisional President until General Nieva can be recalled.

ARIZONA.

SAN DIEGO, May 19.—The Arizona Sentinel of May 17th prints a table showing that 6,000 Indians were recently whipped by Gen Crook, and that there are 2,500 partially friendly Indians who must be watched by 1,200 troops, in those now under orders to leave the Territory soon.

The Contract for building the court house and jail at Yuma City was given to Rowell & Taylor at $9,230.

NEVADA.

AUSTIN, May 16.—Assays of ore from Argenta Mine, Yankee Blade, worked at Manhattan mill last week yielded at the rate of $3,400 per ton. A lot of second class ore from the same mine milled recently $100 per ton.

This morning a Piute, who was working on the windlass in the Nevada Mine, started a car down the incline without looking on the rope. The car descended with great rapidity and injuring in its course a miner named Gibson.

The county jail is empty.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 19.—The steamer Nebraska arrived this morning from Honolulu and Auckland, with Honolulu dates to May 9th.

The City of Sydney sailed for San Francisco May 7th, and the Sparrowhawk, the same day for Melbourne.

The King was making visits to public institutions.

The property of Manna Loa is on the top of the mountain where one occurred last August.

The City of Sydney's officers and crew disbursed about $60,000 during their stay. The Gazette says their departure will be felt in commercial circles.

The native population, says the Nuhou, is diminishing at the rate of 1,000 per year.

The steamer Nebraska from New Zealand is now due.

The Herald dispatch from the quarantine of the Golden Gate between the Colorado and San Francisco says:

The Mary Ann Wright was in sight April 9th.

The ship Glenmorag had been spoken April 9th.

The Wright had a pilot on board.

San Francisco, May 19.—Lee Mason, a butcher of the town of Reno, was shot by Sheriff Bell a few weeks ago, recovered and a young man, Geo. Temple, for having charge of her. No arrests.

James Cooley sold a saloon in Monterey yesterday.

Sarah Bush, 19 years of age, convict of the State prison at Folsom, was sentenced to the penitentiary for life.

San Francisco, May 19.—Charles A. Wasserman, the news this morning in the Superior Court had attempted against him for the murder of Crotty. He received the information last night and it was only then that he had determined on hope of it the judge would be overruled.

J. D. Lynch, keeper of a saloon, was convicted to-day for selling liquor to minors. He will be sentenced to-morrow. This is the first conviction of the sort secured in this city.

An Arizona letter says that the young Apache who accompanied Capt. Hall's party to the Arctic regions and that 200 of them had left and returned to the war path again. The last name is spelled Webb.

Work on the Webb line was commenced to-day. The last piece of the Pacific Mail fleet, the steamer Colorado, sailed for Panama to-day.

Yuma, May 19.—The rain of Saturday night and Sunday night was general throughout this part of the country. It has been of great benefit to the grain crops.

The Oregon and California stage line will commence running from Redding to Roseburg (railroad terminus) in 62 hours.

No coast mail arrived from the front to-day, and we have nothing from the Modoc country.

Sacramento, May 19.—The Democratic Convention, which assembled in this city to-day, was largely attended by delegates from all parts of the State. Horn, ex-Secretary of State, was nominated by acclamation for Governor. He is a gold and silver man.

The Superior Court, this morning, convicted of the murder of Crotty.

NEVADA AND CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

VIRGINIA, May 19.—The daily average yield of the Virginia City mines will be over $11 to the assessment.

A Hill, of Gold Hill, has been appointed Superintendent of the Yellow Jacket mine.

The Imperial Consolidation Company has been organized to work the Imperial mine, in Gold Hill.

AUGUSTA AND EAGLE MINING DISTRICTS.

Union Country, May 10, 1873.

To the Editor of the Oregonian:

It is necessary and essential that the community of this portion of Oregon should be aided in the vast riches that abounds in the Augusta and Eagle districts and surrounding country. I speak of the country, as I have found it to be an unprospected region, as regards quartz mining. I have been residing in Auburn mining district, Hogem, since the spring of 1872. I have prospected this section of country for quarts, and I find it to be No. 1 locality for gold-bearing quartz. The Sheba Mine and Augusta Quartz Mill were recently purchased by W. H. Packwood and Stewart. These gentlemen are entitling, and will in the course of a few months be well repaid for their outrages and industry in developing the mines in this country. They have had as much as $50 to the pan out of their grand ore from the Summit mine. They also have three hundred tons of quartz in the ore shed at the mine, which will yield, at least, from $25 to $35 per ton, all ready for milling just as soon as the roads will permit it to be hauled to their mill. They have also arranged self feeders in the mill, which will work well and give entire satisfaction.

Messrs. Geo. Dobbin & Co., Messrs. Pollard & Co., Messrs. Mines, Alger & Co., have each hydraulic claims working, with strong indications of realizing plenty of auriferous soil. Quite a number of Celestials are rushing in the various gulches, and all seem to be fairly making $3 50 to $4 per day. Messrs. Geo. Dobbin & Co. intend to have the Excelsior, Shoo Fly, and Golden Leaf quartz ledges in working order as soon as the snow disappears. Mr. J. Price, owner of the Bob Tail ledge, is about to commence operations on this mine immediately. It is considered a first class mine.

In the mining district, Gem City, Messrs. E. M. White & Co., of Gem City, had thirty-five tons of quartz crushed from the Gem mine at their mill, under the supervision of Mr. Geo. Dobbin, which yielded $1,365, paying $39 per ton; and plenty of the same kind of ore is in sight.

At Sparta, I was shown the other day by Messrs. Dan Moore & Co. a splendid prospect of placer gold three and a half ounces to one pan of pay gravel, which he recently extracted from his claim on Shanghai gulch. And in fact, it is pleasing to behold the hardy, robust and pluri-cent men of the placer miners in and around Sparta and Gem City. My hearty wishes are with them all. May success attend their anticipations this coming season.

Messrs. Crauson & Co., of the Eagle Canal Company, have four hundred and fifty inches of water running in their ditch.

A miners' meeting was held in Sparta on the third day of May, for the purpose of laying their claims over for one year,—those that wish to do so. Cause, rates of water too high.

Geo. Hop Lee, Chinaman, was brutally murdered four miles from Gem City, on Thursday, the first day of May, by some unknown parties, for the sum of $132, which he had on his person.

YOSEMITE.

A Bridgeport (Conn.) dispatch of the 5th instant says:

An attempt was made last evening to wreck the express train from New York to Boston, a short distance west of Southport Station, by placing a tie across in a cattle-guard. W. H. Johnson, of Southport, had partially removed the obstructions, and while trying to signal the train was assaulted and beaten by two ruffians. The train, which consisted of fourteen passenger cars, ran over the remaining obstructions without serious injury. The citizens turned out and made two arrests, but the parties were subsequently released.

The deficit in the Turkish budget for the current year will, it is supposed, reach the handsome amount of $400,000,000.

THE PACIFIC STATES.

The prospects for an abundant fruit crop in Idaho were never better.

Mining stocks at Silver City show an upward tendency, and lively times are expected to commence about the first of next month.

The schooner L. B. Hayward, just built and building at Port Ludlow, sailed on her first trip on Tuesday from that place for San Francisco.

The white male population of Idaho Territory in excess of the females, is three to one. The last census gives 9,369 males and only 2,815 females.

An official letter from the Post Office Department announces the establishment of a post office at Fox Hall, Oneida county, with Joseph Wood as Postmaster.

Five hundred Spencer rifles, lately received by the U. S. Government at San Francisco, purchased by the U. S. Government for the use of Idaho Territory, arrived at Walla Walla City on Friday, May 9th.

King Jesse Medley Wood, of Idaho, has published a letter addressed to the Governor of that Territory, in which he states that he has been elected by the Democratic party to the Legislature, and that he will be found in his seat at the next session. He says he is a Democrat, and will vote with that party.

The last down trip of the Bonita was made in two days, which is considered a big run for that little sailer.

There are in Tuolumne County, Cal., 1,800 white males and 433 colored males, and 43 Indians; there are 1,331 males and 883 females, or 2,214 persons in the county.

At the late session of the Legislature of Idaho, the following officers were elected: President, T. B. Ferguson; Chief Clerk, Wm. Vickers; Sergeant-at-Arms, S. G. Ward; Reporting Secretary, J. T. Pence; Enrolling Secretary, J. W. Beatty; Assistant Secretary, A. W. Ayers; Janitor, John Ott.

The United States Mint of New York has received no gold bullion from California since the month of April. It is presumed that all the bullion produced in California is now being coined at the San Francisco Mint. It is stated that a great deal of bullion is being held back, and the Mint authorities expect that when the Bonita arrives with the specie from Australia, the bullion will be forthcoming.

The Olympia Standard says: Mr. Wm. Hall, of Tenino, has a fine lot of Berkshire pigs, from the best stock in the country. He has also a fine lot of Cotswold sheep, and has just received a fine Cotswold ram from the East. Mr. Hall is a practical farmer, and is setting a good example to the farmers of Thurston county.

The Police of the City.

A resident of the western part of the city sends us for publication some strictures on the conduct of the City Fathers in keeping so large and expensive a police force. We decline to publish his communication as it contains some personal remarks in regard to a city official, such as we do not desire to be instrumental in circulating—at least, not until we are furnished with evidence fully supporting the charge.

In answer to the strictures upon the Council, it is enough to say, that body has no authority or power in the premises. The charter places the matter of fixing the amount and compensation of the police force of the city in the hands of the Police Commissioners. The provisions of the charter on this subject are found in section 165 of the amended charter, and are as follows:

"The Police Commissioners shall have power and authority within the city of Portland:

"To organize a day and night police, or either of them.

"To make all rules and regulations and orders for their government, and rules and regulations for city prisons.

"To fix their monthly pay for service.

"To appoint a Chief of Police.

"To appoint one or more Captains of Police.

"To appoint one or more policemen or detective policemen, and keeper or keepers of the city prison, or house of correction."

The next section prohibits the Commissioners from fixing the salaries above the following figures: For Chief of Police $125 per month; for Captain, $100 per month; and for Policemen, $90 per month. The Commissioners can establish the salaries as much under these sums as they may see proper, but cannot exceed them. We believe all these salaries have been put at the highest limit by the Commissioners.

Section 167 provides that the Police Commissioners shall report to the Council on the 1st of January of each year, the amount of salaries and other expenses estimated by them to be necessary for the police department, "and the Common Council (we quote the language of the Charter) must make appropriations to meet the expenses of the Police Department, and pay the same monthly as other accounts are paid, out of the City Treasury." So it is plain the Council have no duty in the premises, except the administrative duty of paying the bills contracted by the Commissioners.

A New Question.

A novel question has been raised by the action of the Ohio Legislature. That body, at once begrudged and admonished by the recent victory in Congress, has called up and ratified the amendment proposed in 1789, to the United States, which reads as follows:

"No law varying the compensation for the services of Senators and Representatives shall take effect until an election of Representatives shall have intervened."

This amendment was ratified at the time it was submitted by six States, and rejected by seven. The State of Ohio now proposes to open the question by taking up the amendment and having it voted upon by a sufficient number of States to make, in conjunction with the six, a ratified act in 1789, the requisite majority. The amendment is so manifestly right that it is difficult to see why any State should have rejected it when first proposed, unless the reason was that the adoption of such a provision would do injustice to the Senators and Representatives, by impugning the probability of their voting for such a law as that proposed to be prohibited. Had the framers of the Government been able to look forward from 1789 to 1873, and to perceive and comprehend the manner of men that were to step upon the stage of action, and the sort of politics conscience that was to prevail in the country, it is not unlikely they would have been quite ready to make some provision against the cupidity of the future Congressmen. But they did not foresee the fact, and therefore left the provision unmade; and it appears to us highly doubtful whether the ratification required by the Ohio Legislature would be of any validity. The question whether this provision should be a part of the constitution having been submitted, definitely acted upon and rejected, it appears to us that it is too late now for the country to begin where it left off then, and complete the work then shirked. The only way, we think it will be found, is to commence at the bottom and build up. But the Ohio Legislature ought to have had enough legal talent in it, and it may be that a thorough examination of the question—such as this proceeding has convinced them that the amendment can be constitutionally ratified yet.

One of the Democratic papers of New Jersey evidently do not know the last ditch was reached by their party more than half a year ago. They are raising a whirlwind of dust and noise about the ears of Governor Parker because gentlemen to serve on the commission to suggest amendments to the constitution of the State, he did not confine his selection to the household of the faithful. He named some Republicans, probably acting under the influence of a notion that there might possibly be some difficulty in securing the confirmation by a Republican Senate of an entire set of Democratic commissioners; or, he may have been laboring under the fatal delusion that it is time for all political parties to exercise a little patriotic common sense in their selections of persons to fill grave public trusts. At all events the Governor placed some Republicans on the commission, and is attacked therefor as a betrayer of his party and a plotter for the Presidency of the United States. How it is supposed he intends to make himself President by the appointment of these commissioners, is not very apparent, but the thing is to be done, and the last ditch Democrats of New Jersey are resolved that a citizen of that State shall not have the honor of being President, unless he can get the office by some more strictly Democratic means.

In the model almanac, under "May," you ought to find: "About this time look out for base ball." The game is raging throughout the East, and the season has opened with some excellent matches. The best score so far, is that of the Mutuals, of New York, and the Baltimores, of Baltimore—1 to 0. This game was played on the 5th inst., and was hotly contested throughout, as the score shows. The Mutuals made their only run on their 8th inning, being whitewashed in all the other 8. The Baltimores made 3 on their 1st inning, 1 on their 3d, and 2 on their 5th, being whitewashed in the other 6 innings.

A New Problem in New York City.

The New York Times discussing the demand for more room for the population of New York City, gives some figures in regard to the relative population and area of different cities, which are truly astonishing. From the facts given, and we have no reason to question their reliability,—New York is the most densely populated city in America or Europe, not excepting London. The area of the city of New York, excluding public squares and building lots lying vacant, is about 11,000 acres, and its population, counting only such as permanently reside there, is about 980,000. This gives an average density of population throughout the entire occupied area of the island, of 89 persons to the acre. London, with a population equal in density to that of New York, and with its present territorial limits, would contain five and a half millions of people.

Of course this mode of comparing population and area is not necessarily accurate, for some cities embrace within their corporate limits not only the area occupied as a city, but large tracts of the surrounding country, or extensive tracts used for rural or suburban residences, so that the city that is most densely populated in fact may be reported as one of the least dense when an average is struck over its entire corporate extent. But the Times meets this by instituting a comparison between particular wards of New York and London, taking those in each city that contain the largest number of people to the square acre, and premising that in its most crowded wards London comes next to the density of New York of all known cities. The most crowded wards in London, according to the official returns of the Registrar-General, are Holborn, which has 200 persons to the acre, St. Giles, with 219, and Westminster, with 237. In New York the Fourteenth ward has a population of 275 to the acre; the Seventeenth has 289; the Thirteenth, 311, and the Eleventh, 328.

No parallel is known to this density, and yet it is said that while in other cities the tendency is toward a decrease of population in the most closely packed districts, in these places in New York there appears to be a constant increase. The Times regards this showing as one that demands public attention and prompt and authoritative action, because of its relations to both the public health and the public morals.

Mr. Cushing's Book in England.

Mr. Cushing's book on the Treaty of Washington, has aroused the English press to criticism of unusual energy. The London Daily News, in a column of review says: "We did not suspect that there could anywhere be found a veteran lawyer, politician, soldier, diplomatist, and literary reviewer, capable of such Achilles-like hate. The book is really very interesting, indeed, it is almost absolutely unique. It is a combination of partisan pamphlet, personal lampoon, idyllic eulogy, naive self-glorification, polite anecdote, elegant biography, and complete decisiveness on every possible or conceivable subject of controversy." After a brief general review, the News continues:

In praising Count Salopis, he not merely writes an enthusiastic review of that eminent person's life, not only commends his stature, his deportment, his rank and his breeding, but he takes occasion to celebrate Savoy, to eulogize Italy, to lay a wreath on the graves of Cavour and D'Azeglio, to pay a handsome compliment to Mont Blanc, and to say the kindest things of Monte Rosa. When he passes Mr. Stæmpfi in review he speaks of that gentleman's country residence in terms that make us think another Rousseau is painting the retreat of another Julie, and he tenders such compliments to the Jungfrau that could she but understand them her snowy brows would assuredly be suffused with crimson.

Quite different is the tone of the Morning Post, which describes the book as "curious at once for its good sense, nonsense and malignancy," and which denounces Mr. Cushing's treatment of Sir Alexander Cockburn, as a "gross, foul-mouthed libel on a judge whom, in his quality of advocate, he failed to mislead by artifices, or to convince by arguments." The Echo treats the book as "the vaporing of an angry man," and suggests that "the money awarded at Geneva has not been paid."

The New York Times says in view of the straightforward course of Mayor Havemeyer, the people of New York have so far every reason to congratulate themselves upon their choice of a Mayor, and that those Republicans who hesitated about supporting a Democrat for the office although he was not understood to be a party candidate, now express themselves quite satisfied with the result of his election. We hope they may have no reason hereafter to change their opinion and that the reformation so auspiciously begun may continue till all the abuses of the old regime have been corrected.

The New York Times of May 6th, says that among the passengers by the Norwegian steamship Frithi, that arrived at that port on the 5th from Bergen, were over 200 Norwegian emigrants. "These are the first batch of a considerable number who are expected to arrive here during the present season from the Scandinavian peninsula. A large colony was founded in Minnesota last year, and an effort is now being made to attract this kind of immigration to Maine, and also to the line of the Northern Pacific Railroad. The majority of the voyagers of the Frithi go to Minnesota."

The New York Herald says of the late James Brooks. "There was a tinge of affected gentility or aristocracy in him which prevented him from cordially sympathizing with the ward pot-house politicians." So it is merely a "tinge of affected gentility or aristocracy" that makes a man detest these fellows, is it?

Lieut. John L. Worden, of the First U. S. Infantry committed suicide on the 4th inst., at Sackett's Harbor, by cutting his throat from ear to ear. He was a son of Admiral Worden, who commanded the Monitor in her conflict with the rebel ram Merrimac.

Over two hundred Norwegian emigrants reached New York on the 5th instant. These constitute the first installment of a large emigration that is to leave Norway for America during the summer. Welcome! They make first-class citizens, being sober, honest and industrious.

Notwithstanding it is the dullest season that has been known for some years in the iron trade, the Pittsburg mills are all reported as running on full time. Their store houses are all full, but they still keep up their business of manufacturing.

From Montana comes the following: "Never mind the obituary, Judge," said a convicted murderer, when the court became pathetic in pronouncing sentence. "Never mind the obituary. Let's fix the time for the funeral."

Yesterday afternoon a letter was circulated for signatures of citizens, addressed to A. P. Ankeny, Philip Wasserman, R. R. Thompson, Ld Campion, D. W. Burnside, M. S. Burrell, E. J. Jeffreys, A. Labbe and L. Brook, of the First Ward, Frank Dekum, Andrew Roberts, J. W. Cook, L. White, P. C. Schuyler, Charles Holman, T. M. Richardson, S. Blumauer and S. G. Skidmore, of the Second Ward, and C. E. Calef, W. S. Ladd, Wm. Church, J. S. Keller, W. B. Ridelbower, Geo. W. Vaughan, M. Peterson, P. O. C. Newell and Elijah Corbett of the Third Ward, requesting those gentleman to act as a committee to make nominations for city and ward officers, to be voted for at the approaching city election irrespective of political parties. We were unable to obtain a copy of the paper for publication, but were informed that it is being very generally signed by citizens of all political persuasions, no less than 100 voters, embracing most of the prominent merchants and mechanics, having signed it on yesterday. Until we are able to obtain more definite information in regard to the movement than we possess at present, we will refrain from any further comment than merely to say that, aside from party considerations, twenty-seven better men than those whose names are thus brought forward could not be chosen. We hope to be able to give our readers full particulars of the movement to-morrow.

The New York Herald's war correspondent tells some startling yarns about the effects of mortar firing. For instance: "A shell fell close to the Modoc council fire. One-eyed Jake picked it up and ran toward Scoenchin and his nephew. All three commenced biting the shell, and while they were taking the edge off their teeth, the shell burst, and the Modoc tribe were minus three warriors." He says that on one occasion he "noticed a shell fall in the stronghold, and immediately after the explosion some twenty or thirty Indians ran up on top of the rocks, yelling and cursing at a lively rate. One Indian was so mad that he fired his gun off in the air, and jumped from rock to rock like a lunatic." But the profanity of these noble red men was even more surprising than their agility. They hopped and they swore. They shot occasionally, and every time they shot a soldier hopped. Let us hope the soldiers did not swear. Evidently the Modocs have not been studying the Peace Commission's catechisms and Bibles.

Boston, the Hub, the city of Coliseums and Peace Jubilees, of cosmopolitan bazaars, Bunker Hills and Faneuil Halls, this Boston has on foot another scheme which, if it be successful, will drive its rival, the Empire City, (or, as Bostonians call it, the Empiric city) quite mad. This latest novelty is neither more nor less than a convention of bald-headed men, who will meet to discuss capillary attraction, the most feasible processes of scalping, the propriety of reviving ancient and defunct wiggery, the merits of "cocoaine," the necessity of revising the text of Homer so as to make Jove bald-headed and prove the "ambrosial curls" to be an interpolation. The discussions of the session will be opened by a short-haired Essex (statesman) who will discuss "jute as a civilizer."

From a London dispatch of the 12th inst. we learn that the financial crisis in Vienna disturbed all the money markets of Europe, and caused a shrinkage of value on the Vienna Bourse of $1,000,000 in American securities. In London there was a serious depression, from which the market recovered. "But," says the dispatch, "the recent American legislation and the hostile tone of a portion of the American press toward European capitalists, occasions general anxiety among investors in American securities."

A neat circular announces that the seventh annual reunion of the Alumni Association of Willamette University, will be held in the chapel of the University, Wednesday evening, June 25th, 1873, at 8 o'clock. The literary part of the Reunion will consist of an Oration by Tilmon Ford, of Salem; a Poem, by Sam. L. Simpson, who is already favorably known as a versifier of considerable promise; an Essay, by Miss Angie Grubbe, and the Annals of the Association, by Syl. C. Simpson; A Memorial Address upon the death of Rev. Father Waller, will be pronounced by Mr. Chas. W. Parrish, of Portland.

A Cleveland dispatch of May 4th, says that at a meeting of the Cleveland Bar Association held on the 3d inst. a resolution introduced at the previous meeting, censuring Judge Sherman of the United States District Court, was reconsidered and rejected. In its stead was adopted a resolution declaring that the usefulness of Judge Sherman has been seriously impaired by the facts and disclosures in his evidence before the Congressional Committee, and that they cannot extend to him the confidence so necessary between bench and bar in the proper administration of justice.

The Tribune says that "Mr. D. R. Locke, who is, if not better, at least more widely known as the Reverend Petroleum V. Nasby, has settled in New York as an advertising agent, in partnership with Mr. J. H. Bates, a gentleman of large experience and success in that business. Mr. Locke retains his connection with the Toledo Blade, and Mr. Nasby declines to withdraw his account at Bascom's grocery, or his claim for the Confederate X Postoffice."

They tell a good one on the Texans: "Gen. Gordon, one of the United States Senators from Georgia, recently made his appearance in Austin, Texas. Being a distinguished visitor, he was invited by the members of the Legislature to address them. When he came to make his speech, they learned that he was in Austin, not in his quality of Senator, but as drummer for a set of school books published by a firm which he represents."

Here is another rose-colored version of decency in a Congressman rudely dispelled. "The report that the Hon. J. H. Sloss, of Alabama, had given his back pay to the poor of his district, turns out to be untrue. It seems that Mr. Sloss remarked in the hearing of a reporter that the poor of his district would get his share of the plunder, but added (and this the reporter did not hear,) that he was the poorest man there."

The irrepressible humorist of the New York Commercial Advertiser alludes to ex-Governor Sam Bard. "There have been several conflicting theories as to what Sam was born for, but it has always been our belief that he was dragged into this life chiefly to give sheriffs employment."

Arthur Rane, who was Director General under Gambetta, and at one time a member of the Commune, has been elected to the French Assembly from Lyons, as a Radical candidate, by an enormous majority.

The chief of the Massachusetts Bureau of Statistics receives a salary of thirty-five hundred dollars per annum.

The Commercial Advertiser (Honolulu) of the 4th inst. says. "On the last trip of the Kilauea to Kaawaloa one of the crew, a native, dived to the bottom of the bay and made a rope fast to an anchor that had lain there for some years and which was got on board. The depth of water was eight fathoms, or forty-eight feet, and was too much for the man, who, after making fast to the anchor, became insensible and in that condition floated to the surface, when he was picked up, with the blood flowing from his mouth, nose and ears. He soon, however, recovered."

A train of cars went with an excursion party on the 5th of May from Princeton Indiana to Mount Carmel, Illinois. On their return trip they ran over a lot of cows and jumped down an embankment eight feet high, injuring many of the passengers, some of them fatally.

The Courier Journal tells about a Louisville woman who interfered with her brother's courtship and begged him to stay at home evenings. He waited until the evening when she expected her own lover, and complied. She says that fraternal affection is a heartless mockery.

A New York dispatch of May 6th, to the Boston Advertiser, says: "Money was a drug to-day at 5 per cent., and the banks are pressing it on private bankers at almost any rate. The era of tight markets appears to be completely passed."

PRINTING OFFICE FOR SALE.—A Newspaper and a thoroughly equipped Job office, in one of the most thriving towns on the N. W. coast, is for sale. GALENA AND SILVER.—Mr. Canfield arrived in this city from east of the Cascades a few days since, bringing with him a box of rich mineral specimens. The ore contains a fair percentage of the argentiferous metal, and is also very rich in galena. Two or three months ago we alluded in these columns to a then recent discovery of galena and silver bearing ore which was found near the Coeur d'Alene river, in the northern portion of Idaho. The parties who discovered the lode were under the impression that the metal contained a large per centage of lead and silver; but for lack of the necessary facilities were unable to make an assay. Taking with him a small quantity of the ore, one of the parties went to San Francisco, for the purpose of determining to a certainty the value of the mineral. On being subjected to a careful assay, it was ascertained that the ore contained a percentage of silver equivalent to about $30 per ton. In addition to this the mineral contained 30 per cent. of galena. When this fact was known the gentleman endeavored to organize a company of capitalists in San Francisco to operate these new and rich discoveries. His efforts in that direction met with a fair measure of success. Sufficient interest was elicited in these mines to cause certain gentlemen of means to send up an experienced person to examine the lode, its extent, feasibility of operation, character of the country, etc. Investigations in these directions by the party delegated to make them in behalf of the capitalists, resulted quite satisfactorily. Representations in all respects were found to have been correctly made. When the result of the gentleman's examinations shall have been known, there remains little doubt but what a powerful company will be organized in San Francisco and these mines operated successfully and with profit.

Including the percentage of silver and lead, the ore is estimated as be worth $150 per ton. Men of experience estimate that the percentage of silver alone will be sufficient to defray the expense of smelting the ore, and also to cover the cost of freight. Should this estimate be correct, the very large and rich yield of galena will be realized as so much clear profit. Mr. Canfield, who owns an interest in these mines, will go below on the next steamer with the intention of perfecting the organization of a company. He will also have those specimens now in his possession subjected to a critical analysis, and ascertain if the former assay is correct. If a company is organized, active operations will be commenced the present season. Smelting works with all the necessary facilities for reducing the ore to a saleable condition will be shipped to the head of navigable waters, and from thence transported on wagons and by animals to the mines, and put in working order. These discoveries are remotely located from navigation, which fact must operate for the present against their being effectively worked. The mines are situated in the foot hills of the Coeur d'Alene mountains and within a few miles of Pen d'Oreille Lake, whose waters are navigable to vessels of tolerably heavy draught. Until the completion of the Northern Pacific Railroad these mines can not be worked with much profit, as there are no other means of conveying the metal to the highest navigable point but by pack trains and wagons a very slow and costly method. However, the richness obtained by the isolation of these mines promises an early removal; the proposed line of the great North Pacific Railroad will pass through a gap in the Coeur d'Alene mountains, and approach within a few miles of where these discoveries are located. Before 1877, the iron horse will no doubt be arousing the echoes of that region.

P. S.—Since the above was written Mr. Canfield requests us to state that he has changed the intention of visiting San Francisco at least for the present. In a few weeks he will return to the new mine and as soon as practicable send a large quantity of the ore to San Francisco. Specimens of this mineral can be seen at the office of Mr. Fisk, on Stark street.

JUST TWENTY YEARS.—The China Wedding, or twentieth anniversary of the marriage of Rev. I. Dillon, D. D., editor of the Advocate, was celebrated at his residence last evening. A very large assemblage of the friends of Dr. D. and his estimable lady were collected on the occasion, and a most happy evening was enjoyed. Music, instrumental and vocal, interspersed with appropriate remarks and social intercourse, was the order of the evening, and none seemed to lack in earnest congratulations to the couple who, for a score of years, have trod the path of "wedded love" with such peaceful steps. During the evening Hon. J. F. Caples, on behalf of the friends present, tendered Mr. and Mrs. Dillon a set did China tea set, in a very appropriate manner, to which a happy response was returned. An ...t of Father was spread and partaken of with ...rs. JURY LIST.—The jury list for the June term of court will be drawn to-morrow by the County Clerk. The court docket will not be completed until the last of the present month.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

L. Chassebaro & Co., Salem, are manufacturing tents and wagon covers of a superior quality, also grain and wool bags. We refer our readers to their ad.

W. K. Badger—the enterprising Badger—returned Saturday evening, from a trip to Astoria, and is once more at his place of business on Third street, where he awaits the presence of persons wanting a Hallet, Davis & Co.'s Piano, or one of Geo. Wood & Co.'s Organs. He has faith in printer's ink.

The "Bonpilis" sewing machine, although new to the people of Portland and vicinity, is gaining a great popularity among the ladies. The claims of the machine are set forth in the ad., which appears on the second page to-day. If your wife, or mother, or sister, has not already one of these labor-saving engines, have the lady call on Mr. Horne, the agent, who will spare no pains to illustrate the various ...ts of the "Do...rtle."

PERSONAL.

Hon. F. O. McCown, Mayor of Oregon City, is on a visit to this city.

Gen. Stephen Coffin who has been on a brief visit to this city, has returned to his home in Dayton, Yamhill county.

Mr. P. Schilling, of this city, is now on the way to Vienna as Commissioner from this State under appointment from Governor Grover.

J. H. Bates, Esq., and Mr. D. R. Locke (Petroleum V. Nasby) have formed a copartnership in the advertising business in New York city. Our relations with S. M. Pettingill & Co., of which Mr. Bates was a member, have always been very pleasant.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT—DEADY, J.

Jos. Basheore, assignee of the estate of E. Chaplin vs J. S. Kast and J. Friedlander Kast his wife; decree pro confesso.

Adjourned until the 26th inst.

Picnic at Hubbard's.

HUBBARD'S STATION, May 18, 1873.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

The people in the vicinity of this place assembled en masse yesterday to have a general good time. A crowd of several hundred was present, and with the music furnished by the Aurora Brass Band, the splendid dinner contributed by the citizens, and the excellent address on the subject of Education, Morality and Progress, delivered by the Rev. P. S. Knight, of Salem, together with the various opportunities for innocent sports, the people lacked nothing to enhance the enjoyment of the occasion. All care and strife seemed to have been laid aside for the day and joviality and mirth mingled with the feast, and social converse was the pleasant rule of the hour. We were honored with quite a number of visitors from abroad, who appeared well pleased to note the evidences of cheerful prosperity on the part of the people in this community. A repetition of these occasions will advance the intelligence, strengthen the friendships and promote the moral growth of our people.

LOCAL FIXTURES.

Oriflamme due this afternoon.

Much beer is drank in Portland.

Button holeing will soon be in order.

Carter's wharf is almost ready for use.

Enough rain yesterday to lay the dust.

U. S. Assessors retire in good order to day.

Hyas close coffee at Fabre's, Central Market.

The Grover had another big load up yesterday.

The cabin of the Maria Wilkins is nearly completed.

Another excursion through the Locks is announced.

Judge Hamilton held a special term of court yesterday.

The "epizoot" has appeared a second time, if rumor is correct.

Signs of activity in building at the intersection of A and First streets.

A porcupine fish has been added to Dan. Rafferty's collection of curiosities.

Candidates for the coming city election are beginning to appear on the surface.

All the river steamers leave in the morning except the Senator, which starts for Oregon City at 4 P. M.

New time table on the O. & C. Stages. Mails from San Francisco come through hereafter in 48 hours.

Tickets for the Turn Verein May Fest are for sale at Alisky & Hegele's, and by the members of the society.

Warm weather has come, but with it no abatement of the terrible stench which Stark street breathes out.

All mail matter should be dropped in the Postoffice by 8:30 P. M. to insure their departure in mails next morning.

More California garden truck and fruit to arrive on the steamer: How long are Oregonians going to keep this up?

Particular care should be taken with the Chinese passengers on the Canadienne, as some contagious disease may exist among them.

A gentleman living at Clequato, W. T., has sent us advance payment for three years subscription to the WEEKLY OREGONIAN.

Dr. Howlby and his assistant, Mr. A. N. Gambell, are busy fixing up matters preparatory to transferring affairs to the charge of the new appointee.

Lovers of base ball will note the fact that the final game between Thompson's and Bird's nines of the Pioneer Club, play at 4 P. M. A hotly contested game is anticipated.

Carl. Bosco photographed the Annie Stewart as she passed through the locks on Sunday. It is his best effort in that line.

A brass band has been organized in this city under the leadership of John Everest. String music will be a part of the band, which Chas. J. Graham will conduct. The band has not been named yet.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

The Board of Trustees of East Portland assembled last evening at the usual hour.

Present: McMillen, Shattuck, Stephens, Van Cleave and President Hawthorne.

Minutes of last previous meetings read and approved.

PETITIONS.

A petition was read from Messrs. Abrams, Hogue & Story, asking the Board to grant them the use of one-half of the street in front of block 16 for the space of ten days, for building purposes. Petition was granted.

REPORTS.

The Committee on Streets and Public Property, to whom had been referred the petition of J. W. Kerns, submitted a report. The committee stated that they had carefully examined the matter, and came to the conclusion that the City Charter gave no authority for such an appropriation. They therefore recommended that the further consideration of the petition be indefinitely postponed. The report of the committee was adopted.

A report was read from the City Surveyor in relation to the survey of Sixteenth street between A and F, which he had completed by direction from the Board. On motion of Mr. Shattuck, the report was referred to the Committee on Streets and Public Property.

CLAIMS.

The following claims against the city were audited and warrants in payment ordered drawn: Felix Neil, $5; W. S. Gordon, 75 cents; O. B. Johnson, $12.

The claims of John DeBorst, $7 50, Raffety Bros., $4 25, and A. M. Elam, $6 50, were, on motion, referred to the Committee on Accounts and Contingent Expenses.

RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. Van Cleave offered the following resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Street Commissioner be and is hereby instructed to remove the planking from that part of the Powell Valley Road, commencing at or near Mr. Barker's house, from thence to the intersection of said road with the Oregon City road, thence north to the intersection of Division and Eleventh streets, and use said plank in the improvement of Eleventh street.

Mr. Shattuck offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Auditor and Clerk be and is hereby authorized to issue warrants under the seal of the city for the sale of property on L street, delinquent for non payment of assessments for improvement of said street.

Referred to the Committee on Streets and Public Property.

On motion the Board adjourned.

POSTAGE MATTERS.

We publish herewith several matters which interest people who have business with Uncle Sam's Postoffices:

The recent Congressional legislation provides that "all laws and parts of laws permitting the transmission by mail of any ... matter whatever be, and the same are hereby, repealed from and after June 30, 1873." This cuts off the free exchange of newspapers between publishers, and the free circulation of papers within the counties of publication.

Newspapers sent by mail must be prepaid by stamps, unless "regularly issued and sent to regular subscribers" by publishers or newsdealers, when the following rates are charged, payable quarterly in advance, either at the mailing or delivery office:

| | Cents. |
|---|---|
| Dailies | 35 |
| Six times a week | 30 |
| Tri-weekly | 15 |
| Semi-weekly | 10 |
| Weeklies | 5 |
| Semi-monthly, not over 4 ounces | 5 |
| Monthlies, not over 4 ounces | 3 |
| Quarterlies, not over 4 ounces | 1 |

The postage on regular papers, etc., must be prepaid in advance at the place of delivery, otherwise they will be chargeable at transient rates.

Book manuscript passing between authors and publishers requires prepayment at the rate of one cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof. Manuscript intended for publication in newspapers, magazines, pamphlets, etc., is subject to letter rates of postage.

Full prepayment by stamps is required on all transient printed matter, foreign and domestic. All letters not prepaid by stamps, all such as are received in the office with stamps cut from stamped envelopes, or with such postage stamps as were in use prior to 1861, or with revenue stamps on them, are treated as "unmailable," and sent to the dead letter office.

Department postage after June 30, 1873, will be prepaid by special stamps, prepared and furnished by the Postoffice Department. It will, nevertheless, become important for correspondents of the several Departments and bureaus to fully prepay their postage after the 30th of June next.

W. Friedlander, opposite the Post office, still continues with his New York prices for Watch work. He charges for cleaning a watch ONLY two dollars, for a mainspring, $1 50, for watch-glass, 25 cents.

If you want the woven wire bed, parlor and bedroom suits, the best spring and pure hair mattresses, go to Hurgren & Shindler.

The public mind has been somewhat agitated with the Modoc war, an occasional marine or railway disaster, and the dull times, and the prospect of buying clothing at a figure not large enough to clean a man to the bedrock. The place has been found where you can buy men and boy's clothing, or gentlemen's furnishing goods, at the very lowest prices. It is at Beck & Waldman's, corner of Front and Washington street, where a full assortment of men and boys' clothing, in the latest styles, can be selected from.

Mr. John Kennedy, formerly of the Philadelphia Shoe Store, is now at the San Francisco Shoe Store with Fleschner & Crone, where he will be pleased to wait upon his friends and customers, with one of the largest and finest stocks of boots and shoes on the coast. He will also continue to take measures for ladies' custom made shoes.

If you want pure, fine liquors of any kind, go to E. D. Tyne's, northwest corner of Oak and First streets, agent for the sale of Jessie Moore & Co.'s Fine Old Bourbon and Rye Whiskies of Louisville, Ky.

The Boston Advertiser makes the following sensible comments on the course of the New York Aldermen in opposing Mayor Havemeyer's nomination:

It will be fortunate if Mayor Havemeyer meets this impudent dictation with deliberate firmness. Let him leave the responsibility of the event with the Aldermen. This is just as good a place and time as will ever be presented to decide the question of the relative authority of the executive and legislative departments of the city government. The Mayor must now maintain his prerogative or become a nobody in the government. If the nominations he has made are good ones, he will be foolish to withdraw them. Let them be voted upon, and if the aldermen reject them, they will be compelled to encounter the odium. The situation is a critical one, and the result will be decisive of the fate of the new ring. If there is any stout and honest reform sentiment in New York city, now is the time for it to show itself by supporting Mayor Havemeyer.

A St. Louis dispatch of the 6th inst., says:

The 24th annual meeting of the American Medical Association began here this morning. There were 250 delegates present, representing nearly every State in the Union. Dr. John S. Moore delivered a brief address of welcome, after which Dr. D. W. Yandall, the retiring President, introduced Dr. Thomas M. Logan, of Sacramento, Cal., President for the present year, who took the chair. The report of the local committee of arrangements was read, after which President Logan delivered a long address. The business of the session will consist mainly of reports by special committees on subjects of interest only to the medical profession.

S. L. M. Barlow, ex-Attorney-General of New York, was caned a week ago by one Mr. Crouch, who was formerly in the employment of Jay Gould.

The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune says that Senator Conkling will spend the summer in this city perhaps.

The Boston Post has purchased for its new building the site of the birth-place of Benjamin Franklin.

A Roman Catholic Total Abstinence Union for New Hampshire organized a Convention in Manchester May 7th.

MISCELLANEOUS NOTES.

Ohio has two old fashioned log jails.

Ohio stands first in the list of wheat producing States, with 32,992,155 bushels.

Mr. Joseph Sweet, the newly elected President of a Providence bank, is 91 years old.

Gold is found in Lapland, and Russians and Norwegians are flocking to the diggings.

A new theater in London is to try the experiment of giving only afternoon performances.

It is a remarkable fact that human hair grows nearly twice as fast in Europe as it does in America.

A manuscript in the handwriting of Copernicus, containing eighty-four pages, has been discovered at Thorn.

A Florida man has killed 900 alligators since the middle of December, none of them less than five feet long.

The Chickasaw tribe of Indians spend more money per capita for school purposes, than any State in the Union.

Princess Lynar, nee Parsons, of Ohio, an American lady, is one of the reigning queens of fashion in Paris just now.

One of Reuter's telegrams to the English papers recently announced the following startling news: "During a conference General Canby has been treacherously shot and killed by a Modoc chief, 'Captain Jack,' of the Peace Commission, has also been killed."

The Vienna Neue Freie Presse publishes an article, in which it seeks to prove from historical antecedents, that Russia not only aims at conquest in Central Asia, but desires to carry out the plan originated by Peter the Great, and draw to herself the trade with India and China.

DYSPEPSIA.—The young man who "bites off more than he can chew" at a single mouthful, or gobbles up his dinner in a manner to complete it in a few minutes, should always select the place where the articles of food can be obtained. For a first-class meal of the very best that the market affords, the public is directed to the house of Abbel & Rollis, on Washington street, next door to the Bank of British Columbia. The attention of the proprietors to the wants of their guests, and the prompt manner with which orders are filled, at once commends this house to all.

A first-class photograph is worth a good price. A poor one is of no value whatever. Therefore the motto of Bockius & Stolte is: Superior work, equal to any in the United States, for which we demand a good price, and receive the same. Our new Viewing Wagon, for Stereoviews, is now ready, and all orders for pictures of buildings, etc., promptly attended to, at the First Photographic Gallery, No. 91 First street, Portland, Oregon.

The all-gone feeling which people sometimes speak of, is caused by want of proper action of the liver and heart. These may be assisted and the bowels regulated by Parson's Purgative Pills in small doses.

A number of dry goods boxes emptied of their contents led the public to believe that something new had just been received, and upon closer inspection it was found that the boxes were addressed to F. O'Neill & Co., 95 First street, who had but a few moments before piled up in their store an attractive and varied stock of clothing, gentleman's furnishing goods, and cloths of fine texture for the manufacture of spring styles in gentlemen's and boys' clothing.

People who have cut their wise teeth, use the SOZODONT, and all who do, are willing to declare to all who don't use it, that it is the most perfect and delightful thing for the teeth they ever dipped a brush into. 27

Corn and flour are staple articles, but not more so than Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, where known. It is good for children or adults, for any internal or external ache or pain, and the best Liniment ever used, under whatever name.

UPHAM'S FRESH MEAT CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.—And all Bronchial and Pulmonary affections, carefully prepared by the formula of Prof. Tucker, of Paris, who used it with such astonishing efficacy in the hospitals of that city, as to attract the attention of the faculty to its wonderful merits.

It is now used here with like great efficacy, giving new life to many hopeless sufferers, relieving all.

"James Alcalamon, ex-Captain of the Klamath Rangers," writes the San Francisco Chronicle that he was elected by the whites in the Modoc country twenty-three years ago, and afterward commissioned by the State to protect the frontiers till the General Government would send troops to do so; that he whipped the Modocs at that time, "not with twenty men to their one man, nor one man to their one, for sometimes I had to fight them when they had twenty men to my one." In consideration of this skill and long experience he makes the following unique proposition: "If the General Government or State Government will deposit with the Hon. Milton S. Latham $100,000 in U. S. gold coin, to be paid to me after the work is accomplished, and if a live, fighting Modoc can be found in the lava bed, or anywhere else, sixty days after the money is deposited I will not demand nor receive a cent."

Domestic Experience.

A DANBURY MAN AND HIS WIFE HAVE AN ENCOUNTER WITH THE FAMILY STOVE AND PIPING—THE STOVE COMES OFF VICTORIOUS.

Putting up a stove is not so difficult in itself. It is the pipe that raises four-fifths of the mischief and all the dust. You may take down a stove with all the ease in the world, and have your wife put away the pipe in a secure place, and that pipe won't come together again as it was before. You find this out when you are standing on a chair with your arms full of pipe and your mouth full of soot. Your wife is standing on the floor in a position that enables her to see you, the pipe, and the chair, and here she gives utterance to those remarks that are calculated to harden a man into the extreme of insanity. Her dress is pinned over her waist, and her hands rest on her hips. She has got one of your hats on her head, and your linen coat on her back, and a pair of your rubbers on her feet. There is about five cents worth of pot black on her nose, and a lot of flour on her chin, and altogether she is a spectacle that would inspire a dead man with distrust. And while you are up there trying to circumvent the awful contrariness of the pipe, and telling that you know some fool has been mixing it, she stands safely on the floor, and bombards you with such domestic mottoes as, "What's the use of swearing so?" "You know no one has touched that pipe." "You ain't got any more patience than a child." "Do be careful of that chair." And then she goes off, and reappears with an armful of more pipe, and before you are aware of it, she has got that pipe so hopelessly mixed up that it does not fit two pieces are alike.

You join the ends, and work them to and fro, and to and fro again, and then you take them apart and look at them. Then you spread one out and jam the other together, and mount them once more. But it is no go. You begin to think the pieces are inspired with life, and ache to kick them through the wall. But she doesn't lose her patience. She goes around with that awful exasperating dignity on, with a length of pipe under each arm, and a long handled broom in her hand, and says she don't see how it is some people can't have any trouble putting up a stove. Then you miss the hammer. You don't see it anywhere. You dive into the pipe, along the floor, and down on the stove and off to the store. Your wife watches you, and is finally thoughtful enough to inquire what you are looking after, and on learning, pulls the article from her pocket. Then you feel as if you could go out of doors and swear a hole clear full square through a block of brick buildings, but merely ask her: "Why on earth don't you tell me when you want anything, instead of standing around like a dummy." While you are at the pipe which goes through the wall up, she keeps it up with the most white hot jaw are making the connection, and you ask with an intensity that is truly awful for. All the while your pulses are inter fog. The pipe don't go together, of course. The soot shakes from your eyes and mouth, the sweat rolls down your face and tickles your chin as it drops off, and it was as if your arms were slowly but surely coming out of their sockets.

If your wife comes to the rescue, by insisting that if you are going to be all day doing nothing, and if you think her arms are made of iron, and that the broom slips off the pipe, and in her endeavor to recover her hold she hits you on the chin with the handle, and the pipe comes down on your head with its load of fried soot, and the chair tilts forward enough to discharge your feet, and you come down in the wrong lap of that chair with a force that would astonish a pile driver. You don't hesitate that stove again. You leave your wife exercising the broom and loosening its bristles, and go into the kitchen and wash your skinned and bleeding hands with yellow soap. Then you go down street after a man to do the business, and your wife goes over to the neighbor's with her chair, and tells them about its injuries, and drains the neighborhood of its sympathy long before you get home.—Danbury News.

A Veteran Officer.

A Berlin correspondent, in commenting on the extraordinary jubilee that took place recently on the completion of the fiftieth year of [illegible] service as a general officer in the Prussian army of F. N. Von Wrangel, cites the following chronological facts connected with his career: "Papa" Wrangel—as he is universally denominated by the inhabitants of Berlin—was born in the reign of Frederick the Great. He entered the army as a gentleman volunteer in the year 1796; his first commission as ensign bears the date 1797 ("the year of the Emperor William's birth; and he received his first wound in 1806, sixty-seven years ago. He was a soldier in the Napoleonic wars with Field Marshal Steinmetz and Prince Blücher, both of whom are still living, and forty-eight years are born. A feat of eighteen courage earned him the order "Pour le Merite"—one so rarely given as to be almost the highest distinction a Prussian officer can aspire to sixty-six years since, when he was a sub-lieutenant of dragoons; and no doubt previous was his gallantry upon many occasion that presented itself to him for distinguishing himself, that his subsequent promotions were conferred with a rapidity, that is—and one of Wellington's [illegible] mental observations: First lieutenant, 1808; captain, 1809; major of squadron, 1811; major, 1813; lieutenant colonel, 1814; colonel, 1815; brigadier, 1821; major-general, 1823; and now it must be recollected that Von Wrangel is by no means on the retired list. On the contrary he holds an important command, that of the 3d Cuirassiers, and, until his late attack, from which he is rapidly recovering attended to his duties with the utmost diligence and punctuality. Only a few weeks ago I saw him hunting in the Thiergarten on a handsome charger. There is no other man in this country who has served four consecutive Prussian monarchs. Long may he be spared, a living monument of honor, loyalty, and patriotic devotion.

A RIOT AT STUTTGART.—A Jew riot in one of the capitals, (Stuttgart,) one of the centers of European civilization, is the latest sensation. It appears that on the 25th of last month a soldier bought some goods at the clothing store of a Mr. Baruch. Dissatisfied with his bargain, he became disorderly, so that the merchant had to summon a police officer. The soldier, however, did not submit willingly to his arrest, and the police had to make use of their arms. A report spread immediately that the soldier had been fatally injured, and a great crowd soon collected before the house of the ill-fated Jew. Attempts were made to demolish the house of the Jew. Those arrested by the police were rescued by the mob; the mob, violence, and riot reigned supreme. After dark the mob became more threatening still, so that the military had to be called out. The riot did not stop here. From that neighborhood the mob visited the houses of Jewish citizens in districts not yet occupied by the military, broke shutters and windows, and made the night hideous with yells. These excesses, accompanied with plundering, were repeated the next two evenings. Stores were ransacked and furniture demolished. The police authorities have taken measures to prevent a repetition of these outrages, so disgraceful to their city and country.—Boston Globe.

Irresponsible Public Servants.

One of the strongholds of the rich railway monopolies, under whose tyranny we groan, is their practical inaccessibility. The men who are really responsible, who do the tyranizing, and who pocket the plunder, are intrenched behind the irresponsible subordinates of the company—men whose only function is to do their duty, that is, to obey orders. Shut off from the attacks, the remonstrances, and even the approach of the public, by these unquestioning servants of the corporate will, the managers of the railway are like the robber barons of the Middle Ages, whom they resemble in so many other points, protected by walls deaf, dumb and pitiless. To question these subordinates as to the reason of any action of theirs that is particularly annoying, to remonstrate with them, to plead, is a vain waste of breath and patience. They may not (and yet they may) be uncivil in word or manner, but the end, as the sufferer finds, is the same. They are not put in their places to answer questions, or to make people comfortable; they are there to obey orders. If you have any complaint to make, any redress to demand, you must complain or demand at the office. This, on the face of it, is specious. Beyond question, it is necessary that there should be discipline on all great lines of public travel—in steamers, on railways, in hotels—and it is equally true that subordinates in all such establishments should obey orders. Without such discipline and obedience there would be confusion and inefficiency, from which the public itself would suffer.

But in practice, according to the manner in which such affairs are administered, the public is grievously and continuously oppressed. A passenger suffering annoyance or wrong finds no help, no comfort, and has little hope of redress in the reply, "I obey orders; apply at the office." He does not want damages or a decision in his favor, and a condemnation of the company's servant, after complaint "at the office," and a hearing pro and con. He wants relief then and there, on the spot, before the train or boat starts, at least before he gets to his journey's end, which is generally but a few hours off. To stop and go to the office will, in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred, cost him the very object the loss of which he apprehends—prompt and comfortable transit at that time to his place of destination. This the managers know, and upon that knowledge they presume. They know very well that, after a petulant remonstrance to the minor official, who serenely obeys orders, the average American will put up with the annoyance or the imposition of which he complains; and that after he has got to his journey's end he will not spare the time or take the trouble to seek redress; and that, excepting, perhaps, a piteous complaint addressed to some newspaper, he will submit in silence. And so they sit in their human-battlemented fastnesses, these barons of monopoly, and rob and worry the public on the roads of which they have managed to get absolute control. Now, again, we all admit that there must be system and discipline on these roads, that orders must be issued, and that orders must be obeyed. But here is the point; the system and the orders should be for the safety, the comfort, and the convenience of the passengers; but in fact they are designed for the convenience and the profit of the managers. Their object is not the accommodation of the public, but that the monopolists may secure their profits with as little trouble to themselves as possible, and as little expense as will enable them to run their trains and their boats, and carry their passengers without actual murder or maiming. For these amiable monopolists have very philanthropic views upon the smashing of trains and the explosion of boilers. Those operations are very expensive; and to break necks and limbs, and scald folk to death, at the cost of thousands of dollars, is not the object for which they obtained their expensive (and expensive) charters. They will very gladly make any provision necessary to prevent such ruinous catastrophes, provided always it is not too costly, and does not involve too close a supervision. But as to making provision that will secure the comfort and convenience of passengers that is quite another matter.

Take a recent case in point, that of two ladies who, because of the regulations at the Grand Central Station, and the immobility of a guard or doorkeeper, whose only business was to "obey orders," lost a train which they were ready to take, and for which they had bought tickets. They were obliged either to take the next train, which would have left them miles from their home at midnight, or to take another route. They did the latter, at great inconvenience, and with the loss of the price of their tickets, which the ticket-master would not return. He, too, only "obeyed orders." His business was to take money—there are never any orders against that—but not to return it. There was an outrage, and one of a very irritating kind. Of what use is a complaint at the office in such a case? What those ladies wanted was to go in that train. And of what use would a suit for damages have been? The actual damage, estimated in dollars and cents, was very little; but the disappointment, the annoyance, the anxiety, and the possible suffering were very great. The companies should hold their servants to a strict obedience to orders, but those orders should be to attend the comforts and secure the rights of passengers. That being the end to be attained there should always be some discreet person in authority, not in the office, but on the spot, to see to the discharge of the first duty of the company, and who, if necessary can relax the general rules to suit particular cases which are constantly occurring. And until this arrangement is made, there is no hope or help but in constant and very active remonstrance and resistance. So long as we lie supine before these monopolists, they will walk right over our prostrate souls and bodies. We must cast off our shyness and our silly good-nature, and not be afraid to resist imposition, and if need be to attract a little personal attention by making a stand, even if it should involve a little disturbance, not to-morrow at the office, but on the spot. Such a course might not, and probably would not at once, attain the desired end; but if persisted in, it would in the end accomplish a purpose that can be accomplished in no other way.—N. Y. Times.

WHAT IS MEERSCHAUM?—Meerschaum, an article so much esteemed by tobacco smokers, is a hydrated silicate of magnesia. The word meerschaum means literally sea-foam, which is a fanciful name given to the material, on account of its light, apparently frothy consistency. The compound is crystalline, and its constituents are variable. Silicates of iron and alumina occur. When pure and in the raw state it is quite white, but the presence of silicate of iron imparts a tint varying from a pale yellow to brown; it is soft, and yields readily to the knife, especially when wet, and its textures are generally earthy, seldom conchoidal? Its state of aggregation is so variable as to give rise to several densities. Some kinds will sink in water, while others will float on the surface. Meerschaum of medium density is generally preferred by pipe-makers, as the light varieties are porous, and sometimes cavernous. Most of it comes from Asia Minor, and is mined mainly in the peninsula of Natolia, near the town of Coniah. Meerschaum is also found in Spain and Greece, but in such small quantities, and of such inferior quality, that mining is not remunerative. Meerschaum is exported in irregularly shaped blocks, with obtuse angles and edges; and much care is required in removing the irregularities and faulty proportions. It may also contain various defects by the diffusion of the different minerals throughout, and there are also hard spots in some meerschaum, which will appear on the surface when pipes are cut and waxed.

Hanging of a Woman.

THE EXECUTION OF SUSAN EDERHART AT PRESTON GEORGIA.

To-day was the saddest ever witnessed in Georgia. Susan Eberhart, aged 19, was hanged. She was convicted on the 29th of May last as the accomplice of Enoch F. Spann in the murder of his wife on the 4th of May, 1872.

At her request, a statement of what she did in connection with the murder was written yesterday, and will be published. In it she says she did nothing except being present and handing Spann a handkerchief when he called for it to fill his wife's mouth. She states that she arose from a bed and accompanied him, being held by the hand, at his command and compulsion, and through fear, and that she begged and entreated him not to kill his wife. He said he would if he were hanged five minutes after, and he forced her to do what she did.

He also forced her to go on with him. She begged him with tears to leave her, but he said: "If you don't go, I will pick you up and tote you off." And all the journey she begged him to let her go back home. She says she made no confession as her captors swear to; and she believes that if only the actual truth had been given in the testimony, whatever might have been her punishment, she would not be hanged. But, considering her condition, she thought it was best for her to die now. She was perfectly willing; she did not fear death.

She believed that she would be better off, and that it would be better for her kindred. When she was first brought to jail, she determined to seek earnestly God's forgiveness and salvation. Some six months ago she found peace; now regarded death as a deliverance to be desired rather than dreaded.

This morning the pastor of the Baptist Church visited the jail, at 8 o'clock, and prayed with and conversed with her. He found her composed, cheerful, confident and perfectly willing to die.

At 11 the guard met at the jail and formed a hollow square, inside of which the prisoner and Sheriff rode in a buggy. The ministers marched to the gallows, located a quarter of a mile distant, in a grove of tall pines. She told the Sheriff as they went that she was not the least shocked, and was no doubt less troubled than any other present.

She had on a white, small-figured, cambric-finished dress, neatly arranged and trimmed at the expense of the Sheriff. Her hair was tastily combed in two long braids, one on each side, the ends tied together at the back. She wore a calico sun-bonnet.

At the gallows the Sheriff assisted her to alight, and she took a seat on the steps. The minister read the 88th and 130th Psalms, and spoke a few words of encouragement. He said he had great confidence in the genuineness of her professions of conversion and faith. Then followed an earnest prayer, after which she took leave of her friends. She spoke composed, and said in a firm voice that she had freely forgiven all and loved them, and was ready to die.

Then the Sheriff, said "Susan, are you ready?"

She said, "yes, I'm ready," and walked family up the steps, taking a stand on the platform. The Sheriff placed the black cap on her head and adjusted the rope. She said, "Mr. Matthews, that is too tight; I don't wish to be choked to death."

The Sheriff slackened the rope a little and asked, "Is that about right?"

She said, "Yes."

The Sheriff said, "Susan, place your hands behind you."

She did so and he tied them. Then he said again, "Are you ready?"

She replied, "Yes—ready—willing." Then the platform dropped, at precisely half-past 11. She fell five feet, and struggled but slightly. She was pronounced dead in eleven minutes, cut down in nineteen minutes, placed in a coffin and carried for the night to her father's house, to be buried from the church at Preston to-morrow. She was hanged on the same gallows and with the same rope that Spann was three weeks ago. About seven hundred persons were present, half negroes. There were a dozen white women.

Her neck was not broken. The doctors, with an electric battery, tried to resuscitate her, but failed to produce a single symptom of life. None of her kindred were present. She was the second woman ever hanged in Georgia.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

Financial.

MONDAY EVENING, May 19, 1873.

Gold in New York to-day, 118¼.

Portland Legal Tender rates, 85½ buying; 86½ selling.

Gold bars are quotable at 800 fine.

Wheat in Liverpool—Average California, 12s 3d@12s 6d; club, 12s 6d.

Business affairs in financial circles seem to have a much more encouraging turn during the past few days, and expressions of relief are frequently heard, though mercantile transactions seem but little increased in volume. Remittances from the interior are made with rather more promptness, though there is yet much room for improvement in that direction. The reduced freight charges on the river, and the upward tendency of prices for Wheat will prove of great profit to the producers of that cereal, as every cent of freight money ultimately comes out of the profits which the farmer makes on his grain. Could we have the assurance that our facilities for ocean transportation during the next harvest year would be adequate to the demand, the outside indications of a market at a good figure would give double assurance of a very profitable season for our farmers, and the next season would leave them with much more coin than the present is likely to. As far as we are able to learn, however, the facilities for shipping the surplus wheat of the next harvest will be but little better than they have been during the past, and though there is yet considerable time before our harvest begins, we would be glad to note any extensive preparations for getting the immense quantities of grain now likely to be raised in Oregon this year into the markets of the world, knowing that upon this depends the financial prosperity to a great degree of all classes of our citizens.

The Eastern Money Market.

The New York World of the 7th says

The money market has at last worked into a condition of ease, both for call loans at 5@7 per cent., and also, though not quite so fully, for mercantile discounts, at 6@10 per cent., with exceptions at 7. The manipulators of money kept up their interferences with the natural course of money up to the hour before the appearance of Saturday's bank statement, and then gave way entirely.

The subjoined paragraphs from the Independent will give the reader a fair idea of one of the causes of the repeated fluctuations in gold:

For the first time in three months the weekly Bank Statement of the New York Associated Banks shows a surplus reserve above the 25 per cent required by law, and the circumstance is the more encouraging because the surplus is sufficient to leave no reason to fear its reduction by any artificial lock up of circulation. It is clear enough from the figures of the Bank statement of Saturday that the extraordinary stringency of money, and the high rates of interest which prevailed since the first of April, have been the direct result of a combination of unscrupulous and greedy money lenders and "bear" operators in stocks, whose schemes might have been wilfully frustrated by the Secretary of the Treasury, and the commerce of the country relieved of the grievous burdens which have been laid upon it.

During the whole of the past week, up to Saturday, money was kept so tight in Wall street that ¼ to ⅝ per cent. a day and interest had to be paid for it. On Saturday the cliques who had been engaged in locking up and putting on the screws knew that their time had come, and they could carry on their nefarious game no longer, and they resolved to make one more desperate attempt to create a panic on the Stock Exchange and bring down prices. They put up their rates of interest to 1-16 per cent. a day; they circulated reports of the failures of staunch houses, and commenced forcing down prices by offering large blocks of the cliqued stocks, like Western Union Telegraph, Pacific Mail, Union Pacific and Ohio and Mississippi, and in the course of an hour or two they had created a great an alarm among timid stock operators that Wall street was just on the verge of a tremendous scare, when the bank statement came out, and its favorable figures at once changed the whole aspect of affairs. The "bear" operators acted with admirable promptness, and bonds and Captain Jack Modoc did when he fell upon General Canby.

The figures of the bank statement show a gain during the week by the Associated Banks of $8,251,000 in specie, while the circulation is $173,000 less. They gain in specie $2,281,000, and in greenbacks $2,476,000. The reserve in excess of the required 25 per cent. is above $3,000,000.

The coinage at the Philadelphia Mint is assuming large proportions, the amount for April being $3,018 950, including $3,418,000 in gold, $174,000 in silver, and the remainder in fine bars and base coinage.

Decreased Imports.

The notable decline in the importing business of the past few weeks at the port of New York is one of the encouraging signs of the times. Dry goods, perhaps, as a class, contains a larger proportion of luxuries than any other, and is the first to be affected in times of stringency. The total value of the dry goods entered at New York for April was $8,494 800, against $11,231,700 for the same month last year, and $11,062 500 for the same month in 1871. The total for the four months is $33,192,300, against $39,676,600 for the same time in 1872 and $32,182,500 for the same time in 1871. Recent importations of dry goods have not been attended with profit, and some orders sent out have been countermanded.

The Hop Trade.

The last New York Hop Circular of Emmet Wells contains the following: "We note another important shipment (600 bales) of old Hops to London; this reduces the stock of old in this city to about 12,000 bales, fully one-third of which can be put down as almost worthless for brewing purposes, being the accumulated rejections and leavings of the past five years' business. The stock of California Hops in this market is now reduced to 150 bales. Those sold have not realized quite so good prices as the consignees anticipated early in the season. This can only be accounted for by the fact that good English Hops have come into direct competition with California production, while in former seasons this competition has not existed. Fine English Hops selling at 32@35c per pound has been a hard thing to compete against. Liberal offerings at these figures have prevented the early anticipated advance in domestic produce."

Home Produce Market.

To-day we find that the oft-repeated story of a dull trade has been the rule in this branch of business. The receipts in the produce market have been very small, and prices have not been visibly affected.

WHEAT—We quote good lots of white winter at $1 60 per cental, sacked and delivered.

FLOUR—Extra of fancy brands is firmer at $6 per bbl; good country brands, $4 50@4 75; fine, $4; superfine, $3 75.

OATS—Market more quiet; prices steady at 55c@60c per bushel.

FEED—Bran, $20@22 per ton; chops, $30, middlings, $30.

HAY—Timothy (baled) $18; loose, $15 per ton.

POTATOES—Supply fair; nominal quotations, 75@85c per bushel for best of old.

ONIONS—Market bare; choice lots would sell at a high figure.

APPLES—But few offering; readily taken at current rates.

BACON—There is no change; the local demand is fair, and dealers are confident of firmer prices.

BUTTER—We note continued full receipts and no unusual demand. Prices range wide, from 10c@20c per lb being the limits paid by jobbers.

EGGS—Market still well supplied and prices dull at 16 cents per dozen.

CHICKENS—Demand fair, and our quotations are firm at $4@4 50 per dozen.

CHEESE—A few small lots have been received and sold at 20c, which seems to be a settled figure for the spring clip.

HIDES—The latest advices from the East indicate a slackened demand, and dealers are disposed to recede in offers. We quote green at 6a7c, and dry at 15@16 per pound.

AND RESTAURANT.

THE UNDERSIGNED, PROPRIETRESS OF THE above named Hotel, respectfully announces to the public (traveling and resident), that she has newly fitted up her place of business, situated very near the center of the business part of the city of Portland, being on the west side of Second street, between Alder and Washington, second door from Alder.

No pains or expense has been spared in making the placement and attractive. Neatly furnished rooms rented by the day, week or month, and board furnished either on the European plan or by the day or week, to suit each particular person who stops at the house.

The table is always supplied with the best of every kind the market affords, served in the most approved style, and to suit the taste of visitors.

This house has Private Dining Rooms for visitors taking meals on the European plan.
